

Vice-President

H.E. Mr. Jonibek Ismoil Hikmat
Permanent Representative of Tajikistan to the United Nations
(DPC: 4 June 2021)

Before his appointment as Permanent Representative of Tajikistan to the United Nations, Mr. Jonibek Hikmat was Deputy Head of the Department for International Organizations and Chief of the United Nations Section in Tajikistan's Ministry of Foreign Affairs, from 2019 until April 2021. He held the same post from 2014 to 2016.

He was First Secretary and Counsellor of Permanent Mission of Tajikistan to the United Nations from 2016 to 2019; Second Secretary at the embassies of Tajikistan in the United States and the United Kingdom from 2010 to 2014; and Second Secretary in the Secretariat of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs from 2009 to 2010.

He earned a master's degree in business administration from Cardiff Metropolitan University in the United Kingdom, where he attended the London School of Commerce, and a bachelor's degree from Eastern Mediterranean University in Cyprus.

He is married and has three children.