Evaluation of the Convivencia Escolar plan for the prevention of violence in the school environment	2. By 2026, people improve their equitable access to quality universal education and special protection, with an integrated approach and a special emphasis on gender and rights.	3. Every child, including adolescents, is protected from violence, exploitation, abuse, neglect and harmful practices.	This country office-level thematic evaluation will be managed jointly by the Ministry of Education and UNICEF. The evaluation will assess whether the goals of the plan have been achieved. It will also evaluate interventions that could be replicated in similar territories.	The evaluation will inform the Government of Peru about achievements in preventing violence in the school setting through the Convivencia Escolar plan and will identify bottlenecks and lessons learned, in order to improve the plan.	2024	125 000 (RR)
Final evaluation of the project on education and rights for marginalized adolescents in Peru	2. By 2026, people improve their equitable access to quality universal education and special protection, with an integrated approach and a special emphasis on gender and rights.	All Goal Areas	This summative evaluation is programmed in agreement with the Government of Canada as part of the project on education and rights for marginalized adolescents in Peru. It will be a country office-level thematic evaluation.	“DE adolescents” is a project led by UNICEF that aims to ensure that adolescents, particularly indigenous adolescents in rural, marginalized urban and poor areas of Peru, are recognized as rights holders and have access to an education that allows them to	2023	130 000 (OR)

The evaluation will inform UNICEF and the Governments of Canada and Peru about the results achieved. It will provide information to decision-makers in the Government about effective actions to improve the quality of life of adolescents.
Evaluation of mental health interventions for the most vulnerable adolescents through community mental health centres	1. By 2026, people increase their access to decent work and to the comprehensive social protection system, including a social protection floor, which ensures universal access to health, including sexual and reproductive health, nutrition, food security, basic income security and a care system, with an integrated approach and a special emphasis on gender and rights.	1. Every child, including adolescents, survives and thrives with access to nutritious diets, quality primary health care, nurturing practices and essential supplies.  3. Every child, including adolescents, is protected from violence, exploitation, abuse, neglect and harmful practices.	This will be a country office-level thematic evaluation of a new intervention supported by UNICEF. The evaluation will assess how well UNICEF is contributing to national policy, as well as the possibility of replication in similar territories.	The results of the evaluation will inform the Government of Peru about achievements in the mental health care of adolescents through the community mental health centres, identify bottlenecks and lessons learned to improve the services provided in the centres and assess the possibility of scaling up such interventions at the national level.	2025	120 000 (RR)
