	Delegation's comments	Response(s)
General comments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• We welcome the UNICEF Country Program Document for Moldova.</li><li>• The United States commends UNICEF for its continued support and assistance to Ukrainian refugees and families, including providing protection services, and we encourage UNICEF's continued support to refugees and asylum-seekers entering the Republic of Moldova.</li></ul>

Comments on specific aspects of the draft country programme document	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● We ask UNICEF to consider including the passage of the recently approved National Child Protection Program (NCPP). We appreciate the prominence of children with disabilities in the CPD (para. 1).</li> <li>● We ask UNICEF to consider referencing the large number of children in group homes and foster care are there long term and are often “stuck.” We applaud the reduced use of residential care, and we ask UNICEF to consider investments in family strengthening which would prevent placement into any kind of alternative care. (para. 11).</li> <li>● We ask that UNICEF consider incorporating identification and prevention of child protection concerns into the focus for new social workers (para. 26).</li> </ul>
