Summative evaluation of the Cash Plus Care programme: Support gender equality and elimination of violence and sexual abuse of children, adolescents and young people (2020–2026).	Outcome 2: By 2026, the population of Benin, particularly vulnerable people, makes continuous and equitable use of basic social services and quality social protection. Outcome 3: By 2026, the population of Benin, particularly the most vulnerable, will benefit from the rule of law, good governance, peaceful democracy and strengthened social cohesion.	Goal Area 3: Every child, including adolescents, is protected from violence, exploitation, abuse, neglect and harmful practices.	Country office-level thematic evaluations, including cross-cutting themes. The evaluation of this programme, which has expenditure of approximately $47 million, will assess the key results achieved and lessons learned from its implementation. The evaluation will also assess how the programme contributed to support access by children, adolescents and young people, especially adolescent girls and young women, to more appropriate, sustainable and gender-sensitive prevention and integrated services, as well as their protection against violence, and abuse including gender-based violence, child marriage and early pregnancies.	The evaluation findings will be used to measure the progress made on gender equality and elimination of violence and sexual abuse of children, adolescents and young people, especially adolescent girls and young women. They will also be used to adjust the programmes developed as part of the implementation of the Holistic Social Protection Policy (2019–2025) and the National Child Protection Policy (2021–2025). In addition, they will also serve as a basis for mobilizing resources for a possible next stage of the programme or for scaling up the programme.	2026	20 000 (RR) 80 000 (OR) 100 000 (Total)
